Fairy Poem

William Allingham

When you feel a little breeze, or notice a tickle, or need to sneeze or find your things are rearranged or something seems a little strange Look very closely and you might see sparkly dust, or a buzzing bee: Behold! a fairy with gossamer wings has come to show you wondrous things!

Quote of the moment:

It is by caffeine alone that I set my mind in motion. It is by the Coca-Cola that the thoughts acquire speed, the lips acquire stains, the stains become a warning. It is by caffeine alone that I set my mind in motion.
